Announcements:

Trevor Webb – Success of Trumptoberfest and thanking all of the 27 volunteers helping to make it a success. Raised $3,000 from the event and Delegate Chad Green helped to sponsor

Buck Tumminello – Funds raised from Trumptoberfest and the event was a great success and expense around $2,000 - $2,800.

Kitty Staskelunas – Introduced all the poll watchers and each spoke about where they worked and a little about themselves.

Delegate Chad Green – Announced how great it has been with the election of President Donald Trump. He was not happy with the Presidential percentage for the Republican party at 52% and how we had a higher percentage for the locate elections. We all need to be out and let everyone know how important to vote in ALL elections. Announced Super Seven Event on Thursday, November 14, 2024, which is a free event and anyone is welcome to sponsor the event.

Senator Danny Diggs – He felt that all of York County was very positive and upbeat during the elections. Williamsburg unfortunately not as positive.

Delegate A.C. Cordoza – He thanked everyone and said we will have a great 4 years but brought up issue that whenever we have a big win in Federal the democrats come down hard on state officials and we will need to work twice as hard to insure we get our republican candidates elected going forward. He spoke about how rude the Hampton Polls were to the republican party.
